September 24, 2008

7:00 pm

University of Nevada, Las Vegas UNLV Artemus Ham Concert Hall
4505 South Maryland Parkway

Nourish your soul with spiritual food for relationships of all kinds. Rabbi Shmuley will share the secrets he has discovered about why the dating scene for singles has become so demoralizing - and what to do about it! He will also address the state of the American marriage where men are responding to the pressure of competition in their work lives by turning away from their loved ones. Men who consider themselves failures and don't love themselves turn into stressed-out dads, distracted husbands and miserable human beings.

Rabbi Shmuley will offer practical and inspiring solutions for couples and singles to find personal empowerment, authentic relationships, and lasting love. As the Rabbi emphasizes, "Genuinely deep individuals put consideration into their behavior because they want something greater from life."

A book signing will follow the presentation.

- A healthy quest for prosperity become a twisted game no one can win?
- How did BlackBerries and internet porn become more interesting to men than their flesh-and-blood spouses?
